Bainbridge Island, Wash – With votes in and ballots counted, the Bainbridge Island Sportsmen's Club welcomes its newly elected officers for 2009. Attorney Lynda McMaken was elected President of the club, with Steve Korn as Vice President and Debbie Cauthers as Treasurer. Trustees for 2009 are Jim Walkowski, Matt Haney, Steve Carstensen, Steve Humphrey, Pete Cholometes and Robert Cromwell.

"I consider it an honor to have been elected President of the Bainbridge Sportsmen's Club, a Bainbridge Island tradition for eight decades," said McMaken. "I intend to work hard to further the club's reputation as an outstanding resource for our sportsmen and sportswomen. I encourage everyone in the area to visit and join our growing membership."

The new officers and trustees are preparing for an exciting year that will see improvements to the pistol range and clubhouse, and beginning work on the brand new archery range. Club members expressed gratitude for the tireless leadership and dedication of outgoing President Steve Korn. Korn, in turn, thanked outgoing Treasurer Bill Omaitis for his valuable work over the years.

The Bainbridge Island Sportsman Club, founded in 1929, promotes conservation of our natural resources and provides recreational, educational and charitable opportunities. Located on 17 wooded acres at 8203 Sportsman Club Road, Bainbridge Island, Wash., the club provides a venue for members to enjoy safe and courteous use of their firearms.

The club welcomes visitors and new members. For more information, a calendar of events and a copy of the latest newsletter, please visit the Bainbridge Island Sportsmen's Club website at www.bainbridgesportsmensclub.org. Mailing address is PO BOX 10421, Bainbridge Island, WA 98110.
